4 of 4 review helpful C H I C A G O By Dwayne Barclay Although it has been 20 years since I left Chicago I still miss it with a passion It was good to me I was young and found plenty of opportunity in that great city I meet some wonderful people as well I just got this book today but it is a keeper I can tell The photos are great and the facts in it are educational I learned something already I never saw a pic This city of many nicknames from the city that works to Paris on the prairie is brought to life in text and 170 color photographs in Chicago now available in a great gift hardcover format The extended introduction is an entertaining tour of the city from a life long resident The chapters consist primarily of photos with detailed captions detailing principal facts along with notes of historical and cultural interest An up to date look at a great American city Ch Over 170 stunning photos many of them panoramas along with sparkling captions a fond introductory remembrance and insightful comments by dozens of distinguished Chicagoans Chicago Books In About the Author
